4 Borough and County Member Reports

Councilor Dowden reported, in his capacity as Borough Councillor, that he had arranged for Matt Le Tissier to launch the Valley Park in bloom event on Friday 22nd May at 2pm.

He also reported that Test Valley Borough Council Community and Leisure Services had written to Borough members advising that the tender for the provision of refurbished play areas at Hemlock Way and Sandringham Close had been awarded and that work would commence in the next few weeks once residents had been informed.

Councillor Dowden also advised that he had been informed that the Test Valley Borough Council Sport and Recreation officer had advised that the Council had put out to tender works for the resurfacing of the astro pitches at Knightwood Leisure Centre. The works would involve new fencing around the surface and a long pile 3G carpet instead of the current sand dressed carpet. The works were due to be completed by the summer holidays.

It was noted that Councillors Beesley, Dowden and Mrs Tiilling had been elected again as Borough Councillors and members gave their congratulations.
